

Covenant of Conduct

A covenant is an agreement between two parties: a solemn promise or vow just as the promise between God and his people. By signing this covenant you promise to abide by these rules while participating in Grace Presbyterian Church youth events. You realize that you are responsible for your own actions and understand and agree to abide by the following guidelines.

1. Always respect others and their personal property.
2. There will be no inappropriate behavior or and personal displays of affections.
3. Any items abused and/or broken must be replaced or paid for.
4. There will be no smoking or use of alcohol or drugs.
5. There will be no swearing for foul, inappropriate language.
6. There will be no name calling or other acts of personal intimidation.
7. There will be no weapons of any kind, including pocket knives.
8. Students will show proper respect to leaders and others who are in authority.
9. Students will wear appropriate clothing, particularly swimwear
- 10.No electronic equipment (ipods, radios, cd players...) No cell phones or pagers.

I have read and understood the Covenant of Conduct above and I agree to abide by it. I understand that my family will have to pay for any transportation expenses if I am sent home because of an infraction of these guidelines.
